

Style Watch: Festive Season Bunny Chairs are hopping into homes everywhere as we head into Spring.

If they're not on your radar already, these contemporary chairs were designed by Italian designer Stefano Giovannoni, national daily news produced by Qeeboo.

They come in a stunning selection of shades, from pale tones like mint green to bold saturated colours such as hot pink.

Why are they such a great Easter pick? It's that playful rabbit shape that connects with spring celebrations, but still feeling timeless.

These chairs works for both adults and children — it's sculptural seating. Some people use them outdoors, others use them as playful dining seats.

Prices vary depending on size, with smaller models for playful spaces and adult-sized models for reading corners.

If you're into whimsical furniture, this is one to watch.
